Critical Intelligence Problems Committee

Project and Status Report for the D/ICS--12-22 October 1984

- The next CIPC Meeting is scheduled for 31 October at 1530 hours. The primary agenda items are:
 - Review and approval of the China Study, and
 - Review and approval of the CBW Subcommittee TOR. [redacted]
- The Ballistic Missile Defense Study has been approved by the NFIC Members and the study was forwarded to the DCI on 12 October for his approval and promulgation.
 - Concurrently, we provided the DCI an interim report from the Perry Panel which highlighted the scope and direction of their study effort on this subject.
 - The Perry Panel projects that they will have a final draft report for CIPC review in the March/April timeframe. [redacted]
- CBW Study: With the exception of CIA, the CIPC members have concurred in the study. We understand that Bob Gates has some problems with the study, however, [redacted] is working the problem. [redacted]
- Terrorism Study: The Terrorism Working Group is scheduled to meet on 26 October to review draft inputs to the study. This fast-track study effort is scheduled to be completed by 22 November. We have also appointed Mr. Robert DeBose as the new working group chairman. Bob is Director, Office of Global Intelligence, State INR, and has considerable experience on this subject. [redacted]
